Dear Friends;

I am delighted to share with you the 2017-18 Buffalo State College Report on Community Engagement. An integral component of Buffalo State’s mission is to prepare students to become engaged and effective citizens. We at Buffalo State College are leading the way locally, regionally and nationally through our extensive community engagement collaborations. This report touches on the deep and broad efforts across the campus to allow students extensive opportunities to participate in public life and to develop knowledge, skills, and motivations that inform civic participation now and throughout their lives. Here at Buffalo State, students gain knowledge in their chosen discipline and apply theory to address community issues. Students learn critical skills applicable to their field and to current and future civic life including the ability to gather and assess information available to them and the desire to listen to differing viewpoints while engaging respectfully in dialogue. Students also gain lifelong motivation to address local, regional, national, and international challenges as they join with communities through curricular and co-curricular community-based experiences. Our students care deeply about tackling issues that challenge our communities and creating a world that is better for each and every one of us to inhabit.

This report focuses on the extensive efforts of students, faculty, staff, and community collaborators to create lasting partnerships that provide Buffalo State the opportunity to meet our goal of being SUNY’s Urban-Engaged campus. Our Civic Action Plan provides a road map for expanding our efforts and continuing to lead the way. As we celebrate our many accomplishments and work towards meeting our vision of urban civic engagement, I commend the campus and community partners and especially the Civic Action Plan Implementation Committee for their tremendous efforts and resounding impacts.

Regards,

Dr. Katherine Conway-Turner
President
Community Engagement is deep and broad at Buffalo State. The following programs and offices have extensive community connections and partnerships:

- American Democracy Project (ADP)
  Buffalo State is part of a network of more than 250 state colleges and universities focused on public higher education’s role in preparing the next generation of informed, engaged citizens for our democracy. ADP was established in 2003 as a nonpartisan initiative of AASCU in partnership with The New York Times.

- The Anne Frank Project (AFP)
  Inspired by the wisdom of Anne Frank, AFP surfaces and shares stories stifled by oppression. AFP travels to Rwanda with university students, community leaders, donors, and professors who care to learn more about human rights, reconciliation, and conflict resolution.

- Civic and Community Engagement Office (CCE)
  The Civic and Community Engagement Office inspires lives of active citizenship and social responsibility in a diverse and complex society, and connects students, faculty, staff, and community partners through reciprocal curricular and co-curricular community-engaged learning to address identified community needs. This is accomplished through service-learning coordination, student civic engagement, and community service initiatives.
BUFFALO STATE: SUNY’S URBAN-ENGAGED INSTITUTION

- Career Development Center (CDC)
  The Career Development Center is actively supporting a SUNY-wide effort to add applied learning to academic experiences and internship experiences in departments across campus and partner with local organizations to provide opportunities for students to increase organizational capacity.

- Institution for Community Health Promotion/Center for Health and Social Research (ICHP/CHSR)
  ICHP/CHSR uses education and research to support the development of healthy communities and individuals across the lifespan, with emphasis on engagement with community groups and agencies on issues involving alcohol and other drug use. CHSR produces research that is relevant to local, statewide, and national behavioral health issues. Notably, CHSR is the lead organization for the West Side Youth Development Coalition, which is funded by a Drug-Free Communities grant, a state Partnership for Success grant, and a College Environmental Prevention grant, all of which look to reduce the harmful consequences of alcohol and other drugs. The Center is also working with regional health groups to improve the health of Western New Yorkers through the WNY Healthy Communities Coalition.

- Education Pipeline Office:
  - Higher Education Anchor Mission Initiative (HEAMI)
    Buffalo State is one of six founding institutions of a national learning cohort, which is now the core of the 33-member Higher Education Anchor Mission Initiative. This effort is designed to develop and share new strategies to further the Anchor Mission, which is a commitment to consciously apply the long-term, place-based economic power of the institution, in combination with its human and intellectual resources, to better the long-term welfare of the communities in which the institution is anchored.
  - Center for Excellence in Urban and Rural Education (CEURE)
    CEURE collaborates with school districts, collegiate partners, and community stakeholders to improve the educational and life outcomes of children attending urban and rural schools. The center supports efforts to recruit, educate, and retain teachers to meet the needs of culturally, linguistically, and economically diverse children.
  - Community Academic Center (CAC)
    The CAC's mission is to provide a site where children and families living in Buffalo’s West Side neighborhood can participate in social and educational programs that foster and enhance lifelong learning. It provides a space where Buffalo State listens to and learns from children, youth, families, and community partners to better understand what is needed for children and youth to be fully engaged in learning.
o Middle Early College High School (MECHS)
MECHS was established by the Buffalo Public Schools and aims to provide a nurturing supportive learning environment for underserved high school students who have the potential to benefit from a rigorous academic curriculum. Students have the opportunity to graduate from high school with up to 51 college credit hours.

- West Side Promise Neighborhood (WSPN)
WSPN is a consortium of community organizations and members collaborating to improve leadership capacity, community involvement with schools, and youth outcomes on the west side of Buffalo.

Great Lakes Center (GLC)
The GLC mission is to improve the quality of the environment by providing the best possible science to decision-makers concerned with the health and sustainability of resources. This is accomplished through high quality research, informed and current graduate and undergraduate education, and dissemination of information to the public through outreach. GLC is involved in the monitoring of the Great Lakes – the largest freshwater system in the world on which 35 million people depend, host graduate programs in Great Lakes Environmental Science, and provides a significant service to the region by hosting the WNY PRISM (Partnership for Regional Invasive Species Management).
BUFFALO STATE: SUNY’s Urban-Engaged Institution

- Professional Development Schools (PDS)
  The partnership is dedicated to college faculty, school administrators, practicing teachers, and teacher candidates exploring effective practices to:
  (a) cooperatively mentor teacher candidates and provide close connections to authentic classroom practice;
  (b) promote shared professional development for all constituents;
  (c) impact student learning; and
  (d) research innovative and best educational practices.

- International Professional Development Schools (IPDS)
  To more effectively prepare new teachers for the changing educational context, IPDS was developed by utilizing the existing PDS structures. Through the international contacts of our education faculty, IPDS was established in 2012 with two short-term, faculty-led study-away programs. IPDS now includes PK-12 school partnerships across five continents as well as a virtual partnership in La Esperanza, Honduras.

- Small Business Development Center (SBDC)
  The Small Business Development Center provides management and technical assistance to start-up and existing small businesses throughout Erie County and the Niagara Frontier.
CIVIC ACTION PLAN UPDATE

In March 2017, Buffalo State president, Dr. Katherine Conway-Turner, approved a five-year Civic Action Plan. Four priority areas for improving and expanding civic and community engagement efforts were identified:

1. Developing a Shared Language and Culture
2. Broadening Community Input and Deepening Community Impact
3. Enhancing Supports for Faculty, Staff, and Students
4. Expanding Coordination of Civic and Community Engagement

As the first step towards implementation, the Volunteer and Service-Learning Center was renamed and reorganized as recommended in the plan. The resulting Civic and Community Engagement Office began reporting to the provost in July 2017. Dr. Conway-Turner then appointed the Civic Action Plan Implementation Committee and during 2017-2018, three workgroups were created by the committee to facilitate implementation of the priority areas:

❖ Culture and Communications Workgroup: Focused on developing a shared language and culture of support at Buffalo State.

   Workgroup Chair: Joy Guarino. Members: Ruth Goldman, Yola Monakhov Stockton, Stephanie Zuckerman-Aviles, Kathleen McNerney

❖ Policy and Supports Workgroup: Concentrated on how civic and community engagement could become a more valued component of the tenure and promotion process and encourage community-based research.

   Workgroup Chair: Alexander Means. Members: Gary Welborn, Heather Maldonado, Wendy Paterson, Catherine Mazzotta

❖ Community Input and Community Impacts Workgroup: Focused on developing an understanding of existing community input in order to determine how and where this can be strengthened.

   Workgroup Chair: Laura Hill Rao, Members: Peter Yacobucci, Lisa Fronckowiak, Patrice Cathey

❖ Additional Campus Accomplishments:

   The President's Graduate Assistant for Civic Engagement assisted with Civic Action Plan implementation throughout the year, including establishing and facilitating a student civic leadership board as described in the plan.

   The CCE also implemented plan objectives offering four faculty community engagement workshops, expansion of the CCE website to include civic engagement opportunities, CCE staff being trained on voter registration, and expanded outreach to the campus and community. These successes are evidenced by the increase in community partners (15% increase from 2016-2017 to 2017-2018), faculty involvement (20% increase from 2016-2017), and student involvement (27% increase from 2016-2017).
THE EDGAR H. TURKLE INTERNATIONAL VOLUNTEER AND SERVICE-LEARNING SCHOLARSHIP

Edgar H. Turkle created the international volunteer and service-learning scholarship to support student participation in international service-learning or international volunteer experiences. During the 2017-2018 academic year, $2,950 in scholarships were provided to seven students who traveled to Croatia, Dominican Republic, Myanmar, Rwanda, and Zambia; and over $22,400 has been awarded to students since the scholarship was created in 2012!

We are indebted to Mr. Turkle for his depth of commitment to these critical global community engagement experiences.

THE FREDERICK AND MARILYN HOWE COMMUNITY SERVICE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Dr. and Mrs. Howe have established a four-year scholarship to Buffalo State students who have done and will commit to doing significant volunteer work to address community and social issues. Dr. Howe created Buffalo State Community Service Day over 20 years ago and Dr. and Mrs. Howe now serve as role models with their significant commitment to service.

Two students will receive the scholarship beginning in Fall 2018. Hannah Kalmeyer, Sophomore, Psychology, and Olivia Colby, First-Year, Communications.
COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT THROUGH SERVICE-LEARNING

At SUNY Buffalo State, service-learning courses offer opportunities for student applied learning and civic engagement while also partnering with community organizations to meet identified community needs.
MEETING STRATEGIC PLAN GOALS

Strategic Plan Focus Area 3.2: Growth of Community Engagement

As demonstrated in our 2016-2021 Strategic Plan, SUNY Buffalo State is committed to service-learning and 2017-2018 has seen the greatest growth so far. Since 2004, the number of students, faculty, and courses involved with service-learning classes has increased significantly!

During the past year, 2,341 unique students participated in 143 service-learning courses taught by 70 faculty members in collaboration with 151 community partners.

The chart below shows service-learning participation from 2004-2018, with the significant growth resulting from dedicated students, faculty, and community partners who see the value of community-engaged learning in academic and civic education as well as impacts on the community.
Service-Learning and Retention

Data were analyzed from 54,534 enrollment records to determine return rates of students from Spring 2014 to Fall 2016. Data points including gender, ethnicity, year in school, full- or part-time enrollment, high school average, and school of chosen major were identified.

A 9.3% higher retention rate was found for students enrolled in designated service-learning courses.

Additionally, end-of-semester student surveys reinforced a positive correlation between service-learning and retention with 57.8% of students agreeing/strongly agreeing with the statement, “My service-learning experience has made me more interested in staying at Buffalo State for the rest of my college career.”

Service-Learning and Graduation

The Civic and Community Engagement Office then analyzed the four-year graduation rate of students enrolled as first-year students in Fall 2013. The cohort of 2,185 students was 25% more likely to graduate in four years if they had at least one service-learning course during their college career.

As shown in the chart to the left, four-year graduation rates of students with varied incoming high-school averages were all positively impacted by service-learning participation. Students with high school averages of 70-79 had a 26.3% higher four-year graduation rate for students who took at least one service-learning course when compared to students who had no service-learning. Students with high school averages of 80-84 had a 26.4% higher four-year graduation rate than students who had no service-learning.
The Buffalo State Celebration of Community Engagement recognizes students, faculty, staff, and community partners engaged in partnerships that meet community need and provide civic engagement opportunities. The May 2018 Celebration created opportunities for visual and poster presentations (above), voter registration, and a community service project (below).

ALTERNATIVE BREAK

Alternative Break (AB) is a student-led program within the Civic and Community Engagement Office that prepares groups of students to collaborate with communities experiencing social injustices by learning about, providing direct service for, and reflecting on a specific social issue during academic breaks. Established in 2010, the program hosts 30-50 students a year on AB trip experiences during fall, winter, spring, and summer break.

Fighting Poverty, Creating Opportunity in Niagara Falls, NY
- Students examined past and current assets and challenges of the city of Niagara Falls, particularly as they relate to poverty and social justice.

Striving for Housing and Food Security in Washington D.C.
- Students identified the root causes of homelessness and hunger in Washington, D.C.

Taking Steps to Conserve the Environment at Sky Meadows State Park, VA
- Students applied learned stewardship skills related to hiking, trail building, maintenance, and park conservation.

Strategies to Combat Human Trafficking in Baltimore, MD
- Students experienced what was being done to prevent human trafficking and developed solutions for aftercare for individuals who have been trafficked.

Community Actions in Food Justice in Detroit, MI
- Students identified and articulated the relationship between poverty and food, and what solutions were being implemented to fight the challenges in Detroit.

“Ada Garcia-Poll is deeply committed to civic engagement and its impact on college students and community members, and has been a student leader to address a number of specific community issues including urban poverty and homelessness. Ada has been an instrumental leader in the Buffalo State Alternative Break program, engaging other students in meaningful community service activities as a trip leader and member of the Alternative Break student leadership team. Dear Friends;

Buffalo State students create a better world each and every day. Our students are deeply committed to addressing issues that face our local and global communities and look at each and every opportunity for community engagement as an opportunity to learn, grow, and make an impact. Democratic society requires all members to participate, and Buffalo State students are committed to participating to make lasting and meaningful change. Our students see their role as learners so intricately connected to the success of the communities they call home. Our faculty and staff see their role as educators to be not only delivering the critical content of their discipline, but also in helping students see that each of us can and should leave a lasting impact on the world. Our community partners value opportunities to provide students with meaningful learning experiences while meeting community needs. Buffalo State is SUNY’s engaged-urban institution. As Buffalo’s college, we help students to understand social issues and how their chosen discipline has a connection and a responsibility to our larger world.

During the 2017-2018 academic year alone, nearly one in four Buffalo State students connected academic course work with real community challenges, and these experiences reinforced academic concepts while providing critical opportunities to help in understanding how and why we all need to be active members of our community. Our world faces many challenges right now, and we all must engage in addressing those challenges, find peace and respect for each other, and appreciate the unique talents we all bring to the world.

Buffalo State’s commitment to community engagement has continued to deepen. The Civic Action Plan report is an introduction to the many programs, offices, and initiatives committed to community partnerships. We encourage you to find your own way to connect, learn, and become an active citizen.
